

Sal LoPriore

Pastor Sal LoPriore is a Christian speaker and Bible teacher living with his wife Debbie in Sag Harbor, NY and Port Charlotte, FL. His background includes thirty years of teaching in the public school system and twenty years operating a family owned business. He served for ten years as a member and chairman on the elder board of the Community Bible Church in Sag Harbor and was eventually ordained as a minister there. He currently serves as an associate Pastor at that church during the spring and summer seasons.

In 2005 Pastor Sal and Debbie founded Grand Vista Ministries, Inc., a not for profit teaching and community service ministry. (1 Peter 4:10) Through this ministry Sal has organized home Bible studies, men's and couples conferences and special Christian events. He is very active in marriage, pre-marital, and family Christian counseling. Pastor Sal has also been a guest speaker at several northeast churches.

While working with the Charlotte Homeless Coalition, Pastor Sal followed God's direction and joined the board of Restoration Roads Ministry, Inc. where he serves as Pastoral counsel.
